BY PETER SUPANICH AND THE PLAYERS

Any Night

By Daniel Arnold and leading actors, at Theatre Project Margo's Mainstage, 16 Espana Ave. Best performance Thursday at 8:30 p.m.

Mighty Beanz

It can happen any night, anywhere, and to anyone. Making serious questions about trust and identity fun, this irreverent physical play is a loose, hilarious farce that moves quickly through its 75 minutes.

Anna (Danielle Hahn), a charmingly naïf, moves into a luxurious apartment for a bargain price, only learning that she is being spied on by her seemingly helpful next-door neighbor, Patrick.

As Patrick, Daniel Arnold keeps the audience just below the surface, playing her as such a glibly charming and outgoing girl we understand how easy it is for Anna to let her guard down. If you prefer your comedies slightly abstract, take in Any Night for a challenging performance that's less about wit and action and more about
